- INTERNATIONAL DIALOGUE

- CULTURAL HORIZONS

- YOUNG LEADERS

The Open Ukraine Foundation is an international foundation, established in July 2007, at the initiative of Arseniy Yatsenyuk and Zbigniew Dzhymla for strengthening and development of Ukraine's reputation in the world.

OUR TASKS:

- Improving international reputation of Ukraine and increasing its promotion abroad.
- Promoting international cooperation with Ukraine and public diplomacy.

OUR PROGRAMS:

- International Dialogue
- Cultural Horizons
- Young Leaders

OUR MOTTO – OPEN UKRAINE FOR YOURSELF AND FOR THE WORLD

OPEN UKRAINE FOR YOURSELF

- In Ukraine, we are working with a young generation of artists, scholars, and community leaders who seek to implement social changes in different regions. Ukrainian youth have great potential and we are trying to strengthen it.

OPEN UKRAINE FOR THE WORLD

- We support contemporary art initiatives and present them to the Ukrainian and international communities. The Open Ukraine Foundation promotes information distribution about the best examples of modern visual arts and literature from Ukraine within the European cultural space.
- We see Ukraine as a potential regional leader in security. The Annual Kyiv Security Forum and the regular meetings of the Diplomatic Club are powerful platforms for international cooperation and for development of public diplomacy of Ukraine.

Dear friends, colleagues and partners !

The past year of 2013 has proven that Ukrainians are not indifferent to the future of their country. They want to decide their fate on their own and are able to do that at their best. Ukrainians have shown that they are willing to act decisively, protecting their indigenous right to be called a European nation. They have proven that they will not be silent witnesses to the lawlessness and corruption in their country, of the cultural and moral degradation of their government.

A definite fact is that a new generation of Ukrainians has come of age, a generation that believes in their own strength and is not willing to tolerate injustice. This generation considers democracy as a prerequisite for their lives. They can change not only their country, but also restore faith in the common and prosperous future of the whole European continent, of which our country is an integral part.

The Open Ukraine Foundation is proud that projects implemented by the Foundation continually open Ukraine, particularly its people and culture, to the world. Our international projects provide an opportunity to rethink Ukraine's place in the world – what we should seek for and what international experience we should take into account. We create a platform for dialogue between Ukrainian and foreign partners with regard to the future of Ukraine and Europe, their mutual development and security.

Year by year, we involve more and more young people in our projects. Their enthusiasm and persistence give confidence that Ukraine will change soon. Reforms must be accomplished to improve the lives of citizens. Everyone has to be equal before the law. Law enforcement authorities must protect ordinary people, not the government. This is what Ukraine should be.

The Open Ukraine Foundation made its contribution to building such a country in 2013. However, we will keep on leading the charge, since there is much work to do and many interesting projects ahead that will bring our European future closer to fruition.

I am grateful to everyone who helps the Open Ukraine Foundation, its partners and friends. Together we can conquer the most difficult tasks!

Sincerely Yours,
Arseniy Yatsenyuk

PROGRAM

U MISSION:

- To ensure participation of Ukraine in the European discourse on key political, security and socio-economic issues.
- To enhance understanding by the international community of the processes that occur in the Ukrainian society.

The 6th KYIV SECURITY FORUM

KYIV SECURITY FORUM

«Security in an Insecure World» – this was the theme that the 6th Kyiv Security Forum was dedicated to. The event took place on 18-19 April 2013 and included discussions on the issues of the role of the European Union in building regional security, security in the energy sphere, cyber-security, an escalation of conflicts for resources, the role of freedom of speech as well as problems of the development of Ukraine in the context of international security processes.

The 6th Kyiv Security Forum, which is a platform for debate and exchange of experience with regard to the most central trends in the sphere of security of Europe and Black Sea region, brought together around 400 international and Ukrainian leaders, representatives of political, business, and civil circles from over 20 world countries.

Ariel COHEN,
Senior Fellow, Heritage Foundation, a member of the Council on Foreign Policy, USA (Adviser to the US Congress) noted that «in order for Ukraine to achieve success, it is necessary to engage in export diversification since one cannot look only at the East or only at Western Europe».

Arseniy YATSENYUK,
Founder of the Open Ukraine Foundation, Minister of Foreign Affairs of Ukraine (2007), Head of the «Batkivshchyna» Parliamentary Faction emphasized that «the Association Agreement with the EU and the Free Trade Zone is the best action plan. Ukraine does not need to invent the wheel, but to take and run it».

Anabel HERNANDEZ,
Mexican journalist, winner of the prize «Golden Feather of Freedom» when speaking at the 'Freedom of Speech' session stressed that 'journalists must break the silence when public servants are engaged in corruption».

U PROGRAM “INTERNATIONAL DIALOGUE”

Kyiv Security Forum for Youth

On 22-23 November 2013 Kyiv hosted the 2nd Kyiv Security Forum for Youth. The objective of this event is to create a platform for discussion by young experts on the pressing issues of international relations and foreign policy of Ukraine.

The Forum of this year was dedicated to theme «Good Governance: the only Way to the EU?», during which international experts spoke on why the absence of rule of law and the curbing of corruption as well as a lack of transparency and accountability by public authorities to the society cannot bring Ukraine closer to the EU.

The event brought together young specialists from over 15 countries. Speeches were delivered by experienced experts from Austria, the United Kingdom, Georgia, the Netherlands, Pakistan, Switzerland, as well as diplomats and representatives of international organizations in Ukraine (the EU, UN, NATO, OSCE, the World Bank etc.).

Tereziya YATSENYUK,

Head of Supervisory Board of Open Ukraine Foundation during her welcoming speech emphasized that «Ukraine is a future star of the European Union regardless of the decision taken by the current government about the suspension of preparations for the signing of the Ukraine-EU Association Agreement. Ukrainians will surely become members of the European community».

PARTNERS OF THE EVENT:

B | S | T The Black Sea Trust
for Regional Cooperation
A PROJECT OF THE GERMAN MARSHALL FUND

Nataliya NEMYLIVSKA,

Director of the NATO Information and Documentation Center in Ukraine highlighted the timeliness of the Forum and noted that this event is called upon to facilitate a deeper understanding of the current situation and mechanisms in the sphere of efficient strategies for combating corruption.

Maria YURIKOVA,
Deputy Head of the EU Delegation in Ukraine during her speech at the Forum ensured that «signing the Association with the European Union would lead to a modernization of Ukraine».

James SHERR,
Senior Fellow at British Chatham House highlighted that «the question of democracy by definition does not work from top to bottom...democracy is not only about elections. This is the way how the government acts, this is a lifestyle, this is a basis for institutions' actions in practice».

Vitalii SHABUNIN,
Head of the Board of the Anti-Corruption Action Center expressed his opinion that «it is necessary to punish first of all those people that turn a blind eye to corruption».

Ashraf ALI,
President of the FATA Research Center in Pakistan indicated that «corruption is a unique phenomenon and is present in all countries. The only difference is the size of theft. In Pakistan corruption is just striking. We see that all the bodies are corrupted: the media, the parliament, the army. And most of all – the body responsible for fighting corruption».

U PROGRAM “CULTURAL HORIZONS”

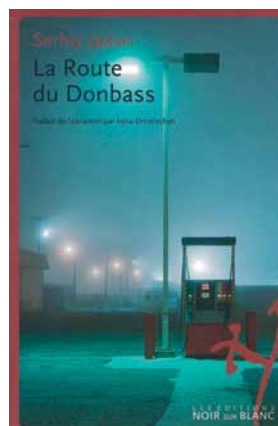

Book Fund

The Open Ukraine Foundation – the only foundation in Ukraine that provides grants for the translation of contemporary Ukrainian literature into foreign languages. Translations of national works improve the image of Ukraine in the world, and promote the establishment of inter-cultural understanding and exchanges of cultural values.

For 2013 the Open Ukraine Foundation provided grants for the translation of four books of contemporary writers:

Oksana ZABUZHKO
«The Museum of Abandoned Secrets»
Translation into the Czech language

Serhiy ZHADAN
«Voroshilovgrad»
Translation into the French language

Andriy KURKOV
«The Fate of the Parrot»
Translation into the German language

Yevgeniya KONONENKO
«Russian subject»
Translation into the English language

Stipends and awards

The Volodymyr Ivasyuk Stipend was established on the occasion of the 60th anniversary of the birth of Volodymyr Ivasyuk, famous Ukrainian poet and composer, and is in honor of the memory of this prominent artist. The stipend is with the purpose of supporting talented youth and promoting contemporary music in Ukraine. The support is provided to students of the Musicology and Composition Faculty of Mykola Lysenko, Lviv State Academy of Music.

In the first semester of the 2013 academic year, the stipend was awarded to Serhiy KORNIYENKO, 5th year student of the Musicology and Composition Faculty, composition department.

«FACES» Art Club

This project is called upon to promote contemporary art among youth, providing opportunities for communication with famous and new faces in the cultural sphere. In 2013, the Open Ukraine Foundation held eight art meetings with Ukrainian artists.

On 24 January, a festive musical evening of the vocal ensemble, ConCord, was held. The audience listened to Christmas songs of different nations, hit songs, jazz compositions and original songs a cappella.

On 11 March, «FACES» Art Club hosted Oksana ZABUZHKO. The Popular Ukrainian writer read pieces from her latest book of essays, “From the Map of Books and People”, dedicated to „The Museum of Abandoned Secrets” upon the release of her book, and talked about a new book prepared for publication in co-authorship with Polish journalist Izabela Chruslinska.

On 24 April, «FACES» Art Club gathered guests to hold a musical evening with the young singer Maryna Zubko. This talented singer sang Ukrainian, German romances, and folk songs adapted by Ukrainian composers.

On 24 May, «FACES» Art Club hosted a meeting with Max KIDRUK, traveller and writer. The author of ‘BOT’, the first Ukrainian techno-thriller, told the audience why book commercialization is important, why there are no multimillion editions so far in Ukraine like King, Bryan and Patterson and why it is important to seek for new niches in contemporary Ukrainian literature.

On 20 June, «FACES» Art Club hosted a poetry and music evening with Oksana Borovets, Yaroslav Dzhus, and Maksym Berezhnyuk. At this event Oksana Borovets presented her latest book «417 Minibus or the Tree of Buddhas». Maksym Berezhnyuk talked about wind instruments and demonstrated how they sound. Yaroslav Dzhus told the audience about his instrument, the bandura, and performed hits and original songs.

On 25 September, the next «Faces» Art Club was held with well-known writer, journalist, broadcaster, and documentary film maker Yuriy MAKAROV. The author presented his new book «Quarter to Ten».

On 29 October, the Art Club held a meeting with Irene Rozdobudko, journalist and writer and Igor Zhuk, well-known songwriter, who presented their joint concert performance «Romance with Flies».

On 15 November, the Art Club hosted Nataka Sopit and film-director Vasyly Viter. The guests told the story of how the “Game of Fate” project was created: about its characters, how the film shooting was done, how the screenplays were prepared, about its creative project team.

PROGRAM “CULTURAL HORIZONS”

Cultural and Art Events

Paris Book Fair

With the support of the Open Ukraine Foundation, Ukraine was for the first time represented at a separate booth at the Paris Book Fair. On the opening day of the fair, one of the first visitors to the Ukrainian booth was French president, Francois Hollande.

Promotional activities of the Ukrainian delegation lasted from 22 to 25 March. During these days Ukrainian writers Lyubko DERESH, Anton KUSHNIR, Yevheniya KONONENKO, Maryna HRYMYCH, Irene ROZBUDKO, Ivan RYABCHYIY and Dmitry CHYSTYAK held autograph sessions and presentations for visitors to the book fair.

On 22 March, Tereziya YATSENYUK, Head of the Supervisory Council of the Open Ukraine Foundation presented a grant program of translations of contemporary Ukrainian literature for French publishers.

Literary Dream Land

For the third year in a row, the Open Ukraine Foundation supported the Festival “Literary Land of Dreams», which took place in June, 2013. As is traditionally done, festival guests were welcome to the book fair and its various events at the Master-Class site, Kurin, Literary Kitchen, and Literature Stage.

Also, as part of «Literary Ukraine», the Open Ukraine Foundation held a Kupala evening «Gala-Kupala party», where guests participated in Kupala fun activities, games and round-dances, a burning of «Marena», the weaving of chaplets out of field flowers, jumping over the bonfire, and ethno-trance music performed by Yaroslav Dzhus with dancing accompanied by the «Roksolaniya» folk ensemble.

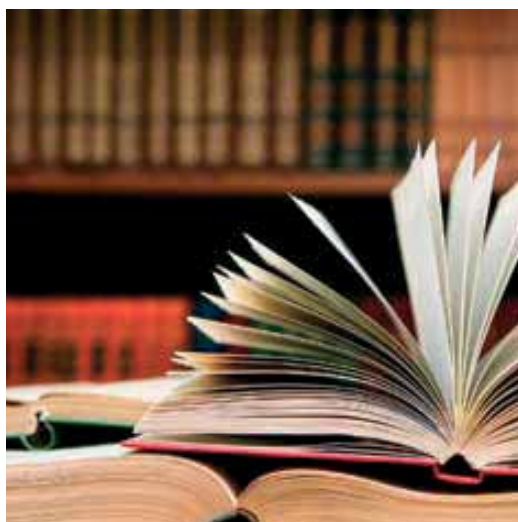

Lviv Book Fair

This year the Arseniy Yatsenyuk Open Ukraine Foundation became a partner of the literature festival that took place as part of the 20th Book Fair from 10 to 15 September of 2013.

Besides the international literary festival, the Open Ukraine Foundation supported the holding of the «Editorial Visits» project as part of the Book Fair. This project aimed at the establishment of favorable conditions for cooperation between participants in the book markets of Ukraine and European Union countries.

German-Ukrainian literary translation workshop «ViceVersa»

The Arseniy Yatsenyuk Open Ukraine Foundation provided support to the first German-Ukrainian Workshop of literary translation «ViceVersa».

The event was led by two prominent translators of Ukrainian and German, Claudia Date and Nelya Vakhovska, and held at the premises of the Literary Colloquium Berlin (LCB) on the shore of Lake Wannsee in November.

The activity hosted five German and five Ukrainian translators and lasted five days.

U PROGRAM «YOUNG LEADERS»

Discussion Club «Open World»

The new educational project discussion club, «Open World», is intended to educate a new generation of responsible leaders. In 2013 the Open Ukraine Foundation held eight lectures hosting renowned experts, political, and civil leaders where efficient solutions to social problems in Ukraine and the world were discussed.

On February 27, the meeting with Berenice Rendon TALAVERA took place, featuring the theme “Mexico: Uniqueness of the Country and Features of its Foreign Policy”.

Berenice Rendon TALAVERA, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Mexico to Ukraine

«...Mexico is a bridge between civilizations – between North and Latin America. The most influential newspapers in the world identify Mexico as having a strong economy in the future. The media have written that “the age of Mexico has arrived”. Indeed, today Mexico is at the beginning of a new cycle of new development within which the country will become a more and more powerful country in the world».

On March 18, the Discussion Club hosted Kristina WILFORE to speak on the theme «The Role of Women in International Relations».

Kristina WILFORE, Regional Director of the National Democratic Institute (the U.S.A.) in Ukraine

«...It is necessary to overcome the gender gap and encourage women's broader representation in politics and business. The Verkhovna Rada in Ukraine is a platform where this policy can be promoted. However, here women need even more support. They will need support of civil society, and for this end it is necessary to create women's organizations. Women need solidarity».

On June 4, the meeting with representatives of the International Municipal Lawyers Associations, Chuck THOMPSON and Ben GRIFFITH, to speak on «Fighting the Corruption in the U.S.A.».

Chuck THOMPSON, Director of the International Municipal Lawyers Association (IMLA)

«...Today there is no country in the world totally free of corruption. It must be admitted that among us there are many people who are affected by its negative influence. Therefore, while developing the mechanisms of operation of local authorities, we must minimize opportunities for corruption. Openness of meetings, access to information, transparency of public procurement – these are techniques that help reduce corruption».

Ben GRIFFITH, Head of the International Committee of the Association (IMLA)

«...Openness of meetings of local authorities is a key condition for the fight against corruption. You, as a member of the public, have the right to monitor meetings of local councils».

On June 5, the Discussion Club with Steven PIFER on the theme «The Foreign Policy of Ukraine: the Forecast for the Near Future».

Steven PIFER, Senior Fellow at the Brookings Institution, U.S. Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to Ukraine (1998-2000)

«...The President of Ukraine has to make a choice between the European and the Customs Unions. This is not an easy choice, but it has to be done. This choice is not only about the economic performance indicators that will be subject to different changes in case of accession to the European Union or the Customs Union. This is also about some change in values. It's not only about the foreign policy, but Ukraine's domestic policy too».

On June 18, the Discussion Club with Daniel WARNER on the theme «The Changing Nature of International Relations. Where is the World Going to?».

Daniel WARNER, Deputy Director for International Relations at the Geneva

Center for the Democratic Control of Armed Forces

«...Globalization is OK, however, the threat of losing one's national identity is increasing. We often think of the state, forgetting about the nation».

On September 26 the meeting with Christoph WEIL on the theme «Ukrainian-German Relations in the Context of the Association Agreement between Ukraine and the EU».

Christoph WEIL, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the Federal Republic of Germany to Ukraine

«...The priority assignment of Ukrainian government is the road of reform. Ukraine must transform, reform the judicial system and economy. We want to see how civil society and democracy are built in Ukraine».

On October 10, the Discussion Club with Herta DÄUBLER-GMELIN on the theme «Problems of the "Human Dimension" in Global Security».

Herta DÄUBLER-GMELIN, former German Minister of Justice

«...Politicians must be aware that on the international level there is a legal control of their activities. This is good for their discipline as well as for every citizen».

On October 17, the meeting with Martin DAY and Oleksandr BOHOMOLOV on the theme «Players of the Syrian Conflict: Who is who?».

Martin DAY, Deputy Head of Mission at the British Embassy in Kyiv

«...We see that six millions Syrians were made homeless, many people were killed. It proves that authoritarian regimes must listen to the needs of their citizens».

Oleksandr BOHOMOLOV, President of Association of Middle East Studies

«...Large number of Syrians are dying, children do not get education. The sick do not get treatment. And millions of Syrians seek refuge in other countries. The Syrian conflict demonstrates the failure of the UN system».
